SUNNY SQUIBBLETS

It being urged that the school girls should dress uniformly, they are maintaining regular discipline by all pasting their hair down over their ears.

Another sign of the prevailing anarchy is that many women are refusing to vote as their lords and masters tell them.

It's awful hard on the politicians to figure on 15,000,000 new voters who aren't considering at all how their grandfathers used to vote.

POSTING NOTICE

I have given my son, Fred E. McMillan the balance of his time and I will not be responsible for any debts incurred by him after this date.

PRESS COMMENT

(Montpelier Argus)
Evening Argus readers did not have to wait until this morning for the details of the world's series baseball game played yesterday. They got a complete report with the innings in detail, the Evening Argus being the only newspaper in the state to give its readers such a report.

Congratulations. The Evening Argus of Montpelier shows commendable enterprise. But its claim of being the only newspaper of the State to publish the complete score of World Series games the same afternoon they occur is erroneous. The Caledonian-Record had a complete story of the game, inning by inning, and play by play, on the streets at 3:05 o'clock on Tuesday, at 3:00 P. M. on Wednesday and 3:00 o'clock on Thursday. In addition to our St. Johnsbury sales we caught all the trains north, east, south and west with our papers, giving all Northeastern Vermont a play by play story of the game the same afternoon the game was played. You'll have to come again, Mr. Argus.

RECENT DEATHS

MRS. SARAH M. JOHNSON

Mrs. Sarah McNeil, widow of N. M. Johnson, died Wednesday evening at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles E. Kirk, aged 83 years. She was born in Sutton, Feb. 7, 1837, coming to St. Johnsbury in 1858.

which has since been her home aside from two short stays at two different times in Pasadena, Cal. Her husband who died in 1897, was one of St. Johnsbury's active business men and Mrs. Johnson was a great help to him in his business enterprises. She leaves an only child, Mrs. Lilla M. Kirk, who has tenderly cared for her in her later years. She also leaves two sisters, Mrs. David Coe and Mrs. Dana Coe, both of Burke, and a grandson, Kenneth J. Kirk, and a great grandson, Kenneth Kirk, Jr. Mrs. Johnson was a member of the Universalist church and a lady who was active and busy in many useful ways. The funeral will be held at her late home Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock and the burial will be at Mt. Pleasant cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Emery,
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Carson.

Everybody wants to know about clothing prices for fall

THAT'S only natural; clothes are a necessity; every man wears 'em, and he don't want to pay any more than he has to pay for them. Here are the facts: You'll have to pay a fairly good price for clothes; transportation costs more; yarn spinners are getting more; weaving costs 150 per cent. more than it did a few years ago---every cost has gone up

There's one thing we can control; one thing the makers can control, and that is the price we and they get for the goods

Hart Schaffner & Marx are selling on the closest margin imaginable---we're doing the same; the closest margins ever attempted

Maybe we'll not make very much money on these clothes; but we shall give you some remarkable values---and if you're not satisfied, we'll give your money back
